

FRx Reporting

A powerful tool if you can harness it

FRx is a powerful financial reporting and analytical tool enabling the user to work smarter without the help of technical resources. Through practical application, participants will have the opportunity to create profit and loss statements, departmental reporting and balance sheets.

Who Should Attend:

- Anyone who will need to write or maintain FRx reports eg Accountants, Asst Accountants

Pre-Requisites:

- Knowledge of Windows and basic accounting.
- Familiar with structure of your Chart of Accounts.

What to Bring:

- Top 2 objectives for this course.

Duration: 2 Days

Public Course: $1200 + GST first person + $995 for extra attendees

Private Course: $3000 + $50 per extra person + GST + Travel

At the end of this course participants will have covered the following:

Competencies

Learn both basic and intermediate design functions of FRx software including an understanding of Rows, Columns, Trees and the Catalog of Reports.

Become familiar with the building blocks required to create a trial balance, balance sheet and income statements.

Learn the role of a specification set and how to organise, export and import catalogues, rows, columns and trees.

Improve the presentation quality of financial reports by applying style formats.

Utilise the organisational structure of your company to increase reporting power.

Utilise a variety of export options in conjunction with reports.

Examine administration and security functions.

Perform advanced calculations and experiment with advanced building block concepts.